

SIGURD ANDERSON
GOVERNOR

PIERRE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the United Nations organization is the only existing international structure which offers a hope for ultimate world peace; and

WHEREAS, the operation of the United Nations has given hope to the peoples of the world that some day men and nations will forget their differences and will live peacefully; and

WHEREAS, the United Nations' various departments provide an international meeting place for a discussion of economic and political and cultural problems; and

WHEREAS, it is most appropriate that South Dakotans support the United Nations and believe in its potentiality and final destiny;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby declare October 24, 1952, as in South Dakota, and do urge all South Dakotans to observe the day according to their own convictions and experiences. I do further urge all South Dakotans to acquaint themselves with the United Nations organization so as to better understand this global union which affects the lives of all of us.

UNITED NATIONS DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 18th day of October, 1952.

ATTEST:

... Sigurd Anderson.
